Guiding Principles

The Society is run on the following fundamental principles:

- Accountability – through annual elections to the Society Board in line with Supporters Direct recommended practice
- Democracy – by fully involving members in key decisions of the Society and operating in an engaging manner
- Inclusive – by setting a membership fee which is affordable to all and open to all
- Open – by being transparent in all our activities.

Principal Aims

The Society's aims are to benefit the community by:

1. being the democratic and representative voice of the supporters of the Club and strengthening the bonds between the Club and the communities which it serves;
2. achieving the greatest possible supporter and community influence in the running and ownership of the Club;
3. promoting responsible and constructive community engagement by present and future members of the communities served by the Club and encouraging the Club to do the same;
4. operating democratically, fairly, sustainably, transparently and with financial responsibility and encouraging the Club to do the same;
5. being a positive, inclusive and representative organisation, open and accessible to all supporters of the Club regardless of their age, income, ethnicity, gender, disability, sexuality or religious or moral belief.

Responsibilities of the Board

The Society Board is required to prepare financial statements, for each financial year, which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the society for that year. In preparing those financial statements, the Board is required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- follow applicable accounting standards, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the accounts;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the company will continue in business.

The Society Board is responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the society and to enable the Society Board to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965 and the Friendly and Provident Societies Act 1968. The Society Board is also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the society and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Notes to the Financial Statements for the period ended 30 June 2023

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Accounting convention

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

Financial Reporting Standard Number 1

Exemption has been taken from preparing a cash flow statement on the grounds that the company qualifies as a small company.

Turnover

Turnover represents net invoiced sales of services, excluding value added tax.

2. OPERATING PROFIT

There were no further donations to the club for the supporter representative in 2023 (2022: Zero).

3. TAXATION

The society is treated for corporation tax purposes as being mutually trading and is not liable to UK corporation tax on its trading profits. Corporation tax is chargeable on non mutual income including investment income but no provision for corporation tax is necessary for this period. No provision for deferred taxation is made if there is reasonable evidence that such deferred taxation will not be payable in the foreseeable future.

6. CALLED UP SHARE CAPITAL

Each full member of the society owns one ordinary share of £1 in the society, which is not transferable. The share is cancelled if an individual ceases to be a member without any refund.

In recent years the board have different initiatives to increase membership, including offering membership free to season ticket holders. As in previous years no formal provision has been made for share capital, however the equivalent amount is held within the profit and loss account and will be provided for when required.

Junior members cannot hold shares in the society nor have any voting rights.

At 30 June 2023, the society had 537 members.
